Board means the board of directors of the Company.

Chairman means the chairman of the Remuneration Committee.

Chief Financial Officer means the senior officer of the Company responsible for financial management as appointed by the Board from time to time.

Company Secretary means the company secretary of the Company.

Directors means the members of the Board.

Group means the Company and its subsidiaries at the relevant time or, where the context so requires, in respect of the period before the Company became the holding company of its present subsidiaries and associated companies, the present subsidiaries and associated companies of the Company or the businesses operated by its present subsidiaries and associated companies or (as the case may be) its predecessor.

GEM means GEM operated by the Stock Exchange.

GEM Listing Rules means the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on GEM of the Stock Exchange (as amended from time to time).

Remuneration Committee (or the Committee) means the remuneration committee established by the resolution of the Board in accordance with clause 3 of these Terms.

Senior Management means the chairman, vice chairman, president, vice president, chief executive, chief financial officer, chief operations officer, chief information officer, general counsel, company secretary and any other officers of the Company appointed by the Board from time to time; any other officers of the Company whose remuneration package is, or is proposed to be, more favourable than that of any officer appointed by the Board; any other persons referred in the Company’s annual report; and any other employees of the Company as may be determined by the Company’s remuneration committee.

Shareholders means the shareholders of the Company.

Stock Exchange means The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited.

Stock Exchange Website means the internet website operated by the Stock Exchange.

2. The word “remuneration”, as used in these Terms, includes without limitation any salaries, bonuses, allowances, benefits (in cash or in kind), pension arrangements, reimbursements, compensation payments (including any compensation payable for loss or termination of office or appointment), incentive payments and share options.

Constitution

3. The Remuneration Committee was established by resolutions of the Board on 1 June 2018.

Membership

4. The members of the Remuneration Committee shall be appointed by the Board from time to time from among the Directors and shall consist of not less than three members, a majority of whom shall be independent non-executive Directors who shall meet and maintain the independence requirements set out in the GEM Listing Rules. The quorum of a Committee meeting shall be any two members of the Committee one of whom must be independent non-executive Director.
5. The Chairman shall be an independent non-executive Director and shall be appointed by the Board.
6. Each member of the Remuneration Committee shall disclose to the Remuneration Committee:
 - (a) any personal financial interest (other than as a Shareholder of the Company) in any matter to be decided by the Remuneration Committee; or
 - (b) any potential conflict of interest arising from a cross-directorship.

Any such member shall abstain from voting on resolutions of the Remuneration Committee in relation to which such interest exists and from participating in the discussions concerning such resolutions, and shall (if so required by the Board) resign from the Remuneration Committee.

Frequency and conduct of meetings

7. Unless otherwise stated herein, the meetings are governed by the provisions contained in the Company’s articles of association for regulating the meeting and proceedings of Directors.
8. Meetings shall be held at least once a year. The Chairman shall convene a meeting upon request by any member of the Remuneration Committee.

9. An agenda and accompanying board papers should be sent in full to all Directors in a timely manner and at least 3 days before the intended date of a meeting of the Remuneration Committee (or other agreed period).
10. Senior Management is obliged to supply the Board and the Remuneration Committee with adequate information in a timely manner, in order to enable it to make informed decisions. The information supplied must be complete and reliable. Where a Director requires more information than information provided voluntarily by Senior Management, the relevant Director should make additional necessary enquiries. The Board and individual Directors shall have separate and independent access to the Senior Management.
11. The Company Secretary shall be the secretary of the Remuneration Committee.

Annual General Meetings

12. The Chairman shall attend the Company's annual general meetings and be prepared to respond to any Shareholder's questions on the Remuneration Committee's activities.
13. If the Chairman is unable to attend an annual general meeting of the Company, he shall arrange for another member of the Committee, or failing this, his duly appointed delegate, to attend in his place. Such person shall be prepared to respond to any Shareholders' questions on the Committee's activities.

Authority

14. The Remuneration Committee is authorised by the Board to discharge its duties within these Terms. It is authorised to seek any remuneration information it requires from the Directors and/or Senior Management who are directed to co-operate with the Remuneration Committee.
15. The Remuneration Committee is authorised by the Board to obtain external independent professional advice and to secure the attendance of outsiders with relevant experience and expertise if it considers this necessary. The Remuneration Committee shall be exclusively responsible for establishing the selection criteria, selecting, appointing and setting the terms of reference for any external remuneration consultant who advises the Remuneration Committee.
16. The Remuneration Committee should be provided with sufficient resources to discharge its duties.

Duties

17. The duties of the Remuneration Committee shall include:

- (a) making recommendations to the Board on the Company's policy and structure for all Directors' and Senior Management remuneration and on the establishment of a formal and transparent procedure for developing remuneration policy;
- (b) reviewing and approving Senior Management's remuneration proposals with reference to the Board's corporate goals and objectives;
- (c) being responsible for either:
 - (i) determining, with delegated responsibility, the remuneration packages of individual executive Directors and Senior Management; or
 - (ii) making recommendations to the Board on the remuneration packages of individual executive Directors and Senior Management.

including benefits in kind, pension rights and compensation payments, including any compensation payable for loss or termination of their office or appointment;

- (d) making recommendations to the Board on the remuneration of non-executive Directors;
- (e) considering salaries paid by comparable companies, time commitment and responsibilities, and employment conditions elsewhere in the Group;
- (f) reviewing and approving the compensation payable to executive Directors and Senior Management for any loss or termination of office or appointment to ensure that such compensation is consistent with the contractual terms and is otherwise fair and not excessive;
- (g) reviewing and approving compensation arrangements relating to dismissal or removal of Directors for misconduct in order to ensure they are consistent with contractual terms and are otherwise reasonable and appropriate;
- (h) ensuring that no Director or any of his associates (as defined in the GEM Listing Rules) is involved in deciding his own remuneration;
- (i) reviewing the Group's policy on expense reimbursements for the Directors and Senior Management;

- (j) advising Shareholders of the Company on how to vote in respect of any service contracts or appointment letters of Directors that require Shareholders' approval in accordance with the GEM Listing Rules;
 - (k) conforming to any requirement, direction and regulation that may from time to time be prescribed by the Board or contained in the Company's articles of association or imposed by legislation;
 - (l) reviewing and/or approving matters relating to share schemes under Chapter 23 of the GEM Listing Rules; and
 - (m) doing any such things to enable the Remuneration Committee to discharge its powers and functions conferred to it by the Board.
18. In carrying out its duties under these Terms, the Remuneration Committee should:
- (a) consult the chairman of the Board and/or the chief executive about their remuneration proposals for other executive Directors and have access to independent professional advice if necessary;
 - (b) provide the packages needed to attract, retain and motivate executive Directors of the quality required, but shall not pay more than is necessary for this purpose;
 - (c) judge where to position the Group relative to other companies. They should be aware what comparable companies are paying and should take account of relative performance;
 - (d) be sensitive to the wider scene, including pay and employment conditions within the Group and elsewhere, especially when determining annual salary increases;
 - (e) ensure that the performance-related elements of remuneration form a significant proportion of the total remuneration package of executive Directors and are designed to align their interests with those of Shareholders and to give the Directors incentives to perform at the highest levels; and
 - (f) ensure that share options offered by the Company to its Directors or Senior Management (if any) are in accordance with Chapter 23 of the GEM Listing Rules, as applicable.

19. Without prejudice to the generality of the terms of reference to the Remuneration Committee set out above, the Remuneration Committee shall:
- (a) operate the Company's share scheme (if any) or other incentives schemes (if any) as they apply to, and recommend to the general meeting of shareholders grants of options to be made to Directors and/or Senior Management. It shall recommend to the Board the total aggregate amount of any grants to employees (with the specific grants to individuals to be at the discretion of the Board) and make amendments to the terms of such schemes (subject to the provisions of the schemes relating to amendment);
 - (b) liaise with the trustee of any employee share scheme which is created by the Company for the benefit of employees, Senior Management or Directors;
 - (c) review the terms of executive Directors' service contracts from time to time; and
 - (d) advise the Board in relation to the preparation of the Board's remuneration report (if any) to shareholders.

Reporting procedures

20. Full minutes of the Remuneration Committee's meetings shall be kept by a duly appointed secretary of the meeting (who should normally be the Company Secretary or his appointed delegate), and such minutes shall be available for inspection at any reasonable time on reasonable notice by any Director.
21. Minutes of meetings of the Remuneration Committee shall record in sufficient detail all matters considered and all decisions reached, including any concerns raised by Directors, members of the Remuneration Committee or dissenting views expressed. Draft and final versions of minutes should be sent to all members of the Remuneration Committee for their comment and records respectively, in both cases within a reasonable time after such meetings.
22. Without prejudice to the generality of the duties of the Remuneration Committee set out in these Terms, the Remuneration Committee shall report back to the Board and keep the Board fully informed of its decisions and recommendations, unless there are legal or regulatory restrictions on it to do so.

Provision of terms of reference

23. The Remuneration Committee shall make available these Terms on request and by inclusion on the Stock Exchange Website and the Company's website, thereby explaining its role and the authority delegated to it by the Board.
